Psalm 106:1-6

- ¹ Praise the Lord!
O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures for ever.
- ² Who can utter the mighty doings of the Lord,
or declare all his praise?
- ³ Happy are those who observe justice,
who do righteousness at all times.
- ⁴ Remember me, O Lord, when you show favor to your people;
help me when you deliver them;
- ⁵ that I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones,
that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
that I may glory in your heritage.
- ⁶ Both we and our ancestors have sinned;
we have committed iniquity, have done wickedly.

Where have you seen God's justice and righteousness this week? Sit with these verses and meditate on them. What do they make you think of or feel? Is there a verse or verses that you want to skim over and not think on too deeply? Push yourself to do so.

Ponder these questions and share as you are comfortable:

- How is your relationship with God today?
- What spiritual disciplines are you struggling with this week? What life-giving habits are helping to grow your connection with God?
- Is there anything in your life (fear, anger, forgiveness, property, possessions, etc.) that is getting in the way of your relationship with God and others?
- Is there anything you are trying to keep hidden?
- How might the Holy Spirit be working for renewal in your life?
