Edward N. Travis Scholarship
Instructions

Fayetteville First United Methodist Church is proud to offer scholarship assistance to deserving high school seniors who are active members of FFUMC through the Edward N. Travis Scholarship Fund.

This scholarship program was founded by Ed and Shelby Travis. Their goal was to encourage bright and industrious students to complete a college or technical degree by providing financial support.

Recipients of the scholarship qualify for a one-time $2500 scholarship. The scholarships will be determined by the Fayetteville First United Methodist Church Trustee Scholarship Committee. The committee will consider church involvement, academics and need.

A fully completed application with all attachments must be received at the Fayetteville First United Methodist Church office by: March 22, 2021
(These documents can only be accepted at the church office not by a trustee.)

Applicants must include:

- _____ Completed and signed application
- _____ Two letters of recommendation
(1 from school official, teacher, counselor, or principal)
(1 from an adult outside the family)
- _____ Most recent transcript with official signature
