Week of April 5, 2021

Acts 4:32-35

³² Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. ³³With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. ³⁵They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

When, in the last few weeks, have you seen a tangible expression of God's love being offered to others? How does our Christian community extend generosity to those within and those beyond the community? How do you extend generosity?

The following questions allow for mutual accountability, where spiritual friends are found confessing sin without fear of condemnation.

- ★ Where/How have you experienced God this week?
- ★ Where/How have you seen love flow? How is it with your soul?
 - What known sins have you committed since our last meeting?
 - What temptations have you met with?
 - How were you delivered?
 - What have you thought, said, or done, of which you doubt whether it be sin or not?
 - Have you nothing you desire to keep secret?
