

Presenting Charles Robinson

Charles was born and raised in Atlanta. He is a graduate of Oxford College of Emory University, Emory College, and the Candler School of Theology. Stewart Avenue UMC in Atlanta was his Home Church and it was there that he met his first wife, Kay. They were married for 32 years, and she passed away in 2007. Later, while he was the Pastor at Jonesboro First UMC, he was introduced to Mickey Seigle and they were married at FFUMC in 2012.

Charles heard God's call to ministry while at the Stewart Avenue Church, and he was appointed as a Student Pastor to the Waco Charge (Georgia, not Texas) in 1976. He was ordained as an Elder in 1979, and served for 46 years in the North Georgia Conference, retiring in 2022. Mickey and Charles moved to Fayetteville in August of 2022, and they are living in the house where Mickey resided when they were married. Between them, Mickey and Charles have 4 sons and 6 grandchildren. Since his retirement Charles served as an interim supply Pastor at Freeman Memorial UMC in Newnan.

Charles served full-time appointments in the following towns in Georgia – Washington, Thomson, Milledgeville, Royston, Alpharetta/Cumming, Jonesboro, Lilburn/Stone Mountain, and Newnan. His hobbies include walking, reading, and coin collecting. Charles considers it a privilege to be continuing his ministry as part of a great Staff at FFUMC.
