

inspired ...

Welcome, Nick Bowden

We are delighted to announce that Nick Bowden will be Fayetteville First's new Director of Music & Organist. Nick is a highly skilled and experienced church musician with a clear call to the service of Christ and the church through music.

Nick comes to FFUMC from the Episcopal Church of the Holy Spirit. Prior to that, he served at Druid Hills Presbyterian. Nick is perhaps best known from his tenure at Peachtree Presbyterian where he served as Principal Organist and Associate Director of Music for 22 years. Nick has performed concerts in 37 states and 7 countries at venues large and small including The Crystal Cathedral, St. Paul's London, US Naval Academy Cadet Chapel, Macy's "Wanamaker" Organ in Philadelphia, Sister's Chapel at Spelman, and many others. We are blessed to have so experienced a professional say yes to FFUMC.

